Genealogy Books

WANTED! U.S. Criminal Records
A 388-page reference that lists where one can find historical U.S. criminal records - prison records, court trial transcripts, pardon/parole records, and execution information - across America. Includes primer on how to conduct historical criminal research.

COMING SOON!

Putting the Flesh on the Bones
Take your genealogical research skills to the next level. By focusing your research on just one individual at a time, you can explore the far more interesting questions, Why? and How? Learn more about the Life Chronology™, the Life Hub & Spoke, and psycho-genealogy.

The Jews of Sing Sing
And you thought Jews did not commit crimes. Think again. Learn about Jewish criminals who operated in NYC and spent time in the 'Big House.' See how Putting the Flesh on the Bones (see above) works repeatedly via a dozen mini-bios of famous gangsters and lesser-known Jewish criminals.
